Finding smart, hard-working, reliable employees can be tough, but consider this opportunity.

Marian House

Marian House provides its own unique, caring, and comprehensive two-year program to women who are physically, mentally, and emotionally capable of, and committed to, changing their lives to be self-sufficient. Women who are literally moving from dependence to independence.

We invest significant time in our women. They invest tremendously in themselves. Now they are ready to invest in our community.

The women who move through the phases of our program want to work, to be positive role models for their families, and to be contributing members to our society.

They are ready to show you the benefits they will bring to you and your company. Hire a Marian House woman!
